Rose Nassif Travers
Bahnhaldenstrasse 32, 8052 Zürich
www.thebostonschool.com

"Dead in Dublin" by Jeremy Taylor

Chapters 12-15 Reading Comprehension Questions

Directions: Feel free to print out this page and write your answers down. It is of course recommended that you do this before you look at the Answer Key☺.

The action of the story starts to unfold very quickly in the last four chapters. Below you'll find questions to answer after reading all of these chapters.

1. Who killed Milan and why?

2. There are 3 pieces of key evidence that lead Daniel and the others to the answer. They are : the dead rat, Eloisa's pregnancy and Enrico's parents. Please explain how the details about these 3 points helps us to figure out who killed Milan.

3. There are many surprising and exciting events that happen at the end of the story in Milan's apartment that involve the dinner, the uninvited guests who arrive and how the murderer reacts to being caught. Please tell what happened around these crucial parts to the story in your own words.

4. There is a "happily ever after" ending to the story with many of the characters in the book. Please outline them here.