

“Dead in Dublin” by Jeremy Taylor

Chapters 3 Reading Comprehension Answer Key

Chapter 3

1. What do you think the expression “(to) pay peanuts” means?

It means to not pay much at all.

2. Who telephones Daniel at his flat? Why?

The Egyptian student, Ghada telephones because she wants to meet him at the Ha’Penny Bridge.

3. What do you think the expression “I owe you one” means and why does Daniel say it?

People say this to thank someone for a favor to let them know they will be happy to return the favor. In other words, they owe them a favor back for their help.

He says it because he asked Susan O’Leary for help to figure out where Ghada meant by her message to meet her at what sounded like the “Abeny Bridge”. Susan was able to figure out that she meant “Ha’Penny Bridge”.
