

“Dead in Dublin” by Jeremy Taylor

Chapters 4 Reading Comprehension Questions

Directions: Feel free to print out this page and write your answers down. It is of course recommended that you do this before you look at the Answer Key 😊.

Chapter 4

- 1. In what area of Dublin does the teacher meet Ghada? Please describe it – what is the area like now compared to 10 years ago?

In the Temple Bar area which is now a busy, vibrant area full of pubs, clubs and restaurants unlike how it was just 10 years ago (at the time of writing) when it was run down and thought to be dangerous. (The Zanzibar is where they meet, which if you click on the link, you’ll see why it makes sense Ghada chose this venue.)

- 2. How was Ghada acting strangely and why?

She kept looking around her and was very jumpy when hearing loud noises. She seems to act like she was being followed.

- 3. What did Daniel learn from Ghada?

- 1) He learned that Ghada was a Christian Egyptian and that her father disapproved of a relationship between her daughter and a European.
- 2) Ghada’s parents had come to Dublin 2 weeks ago.
- 3) Milan had told Ghada he wanted to marry her.
- 4) Ghada thinks Eloisa, the quiet Spanish music teacher, killed Milan out of jealousy because, she, too, loved Milan.

- 4. What did Ghada learn from Daniel?

She learned that Milan had been a married man.