Chat n' Chowder Issue: April 2017

A fresh new start

Defining who we are

We have been teaching English in the Swiss community since year 2000. In 2016, the school reached a long term goal by becoming a GmbH (a private limited liability company).

To portray this fresh new start, we have changed our logo, using a spring green color for our door and clearly defining who our students are by adding a clear tagline: Corporate English Language Training. We want people to understand that our focus is on teaching English to professionals.

Now that our team and processes are well in place, we are ready to focus on offering our services on a larger scale.

For those of our readers who have benefited from our English courses, we hope you can help us spread the word to those who may also need our assistance.

Here is our latest press release in German appearing in the latest KMU Rundschau magazine, offering advice to HR professionals in choosing a language training school for their staff. Won't you pass it on to someone you know who might also benefit from our great team of teachers? For a successful referral, we are happy to reward you for your efforts and support.

Hangout in English!

April Events in Zurich and Baden

Have you got a bit more free time coming up and want to treat yourself to a mini-adventure? Why not come to one of our upcoming Hangouts in English? On 20 April, Rose N. Travers will be hosting the Zurich event starting at 8pm where we'll enjoy a drink, discussions and live music at Falcone in Wiedikon.

In Baden, Melissa Weaver will be hosting the next Aarau-Hangout in English! on Monday 24 April at Mr Pickwick Irish Pub. At the pub, you'll have fun participating in a team pub quiz challenge and a beer at 7:15 pm. Pub food is also available. And... I understand they've already won a pub quiz!

Here you can directly register for one of these events:

Our Dublin Trip 2017

31 August - 3 September

Our next trip to Dublin is now ready to be announced! As you may know, we had made all the arrangements for a trip to Dublin in 2016 but unfortunately had to cancel it due to an unforeseen accident. Rose broke both of her wrists!!

But this is not going to stop us. We are determined to try this again! This year, we have organized the trip to allow not only our students based in the Zurich area to come but basically, anyone at all. How? The arrangements now include hotel, meals and excursions only. We have left the travel arrangements up to you. For more details on the itinerary and price, please check out our website link.

Or sign up for our "Design your own Dublin Trip" meeting, where we will present more details about our trip and offer additional information about Dublin to help you make the most of your time. Click here.

School Message

Happy Easter

Easter is a time of renewal and fresh beginnings. We wish all of our clients, students, teachers, families and friends a chance to have a fresh start as we face new challenges ahead.

Solutions can be found to seemingly difficult problems when we communicate and work together. May English be one of the tools that helps us to work towards a more peaceful, brighter future.
