

The Boston School's January 2020 Newsletter

2020 has begun and I'd like to wish you a fantastic start.

We've got a lot planned and soon we'll be launching our new website to highlight upcoming online learning options starting in March.

But while we are busy working out the details, here comes a mix of cultural fun, professional tips on how to prepare for client visits as well as the announcement of our "Where's Katie?" contest winner: Nicole Mosimann from Lyreco in Dietikon. She was awarded a gift certificate worth CHF 100.00 in value towards her next English course. Good job, Nicole!

We thank all who have participated.

A bit of fun British culture

I'm sure you're just going to love watching this music video based on the original song "We Built This City". Learn how social media personality, LadBaby and his wife, manage to produce two Number 1 Christmas hits two years in a row. Their first hit, Christmas 2018, featured here, should put a smile on your face. We've created two fun quizzes based on it. Enjoy!

How to prepare well for your first client meeting

Here is a step-by-step guide on how to prepare for your first client meeting in English.

Especially when dealing with technical issues, we hope you find this article and powerpoint presentation helpful.

Come try out our free online conversation sessions

Until the end of February, we are offering free online conversation sessions on Monday nights from 19:30 - 21:00 for those learners at a pre-C1 level and above. It's convenient and fun and hope you'll join us. Currently, there are 2-3 women who participate in the group.

If you're interested in joining us, please contact me by e-mail and advise which evening you would like to attend.
